- Press conference today at 2pm in Brussels

Delta Lloyd NV (“Delta Lloyd”) today announces that it has applied for a listing on NYSE Euronext Brussels. This cross listing is expected to become effective on 23 January 2013. Delta Lloyd will not place any new shares in this connection. The primary listing of Delta Lloyd will remain on NYSE Euronext Amsterdam.

The cross listing confirms the importance that Delta Lloyd attaches to Belgium as its second home market, and reinforces its profile and visibility as a player in the Belgian banking and pensions market. In addition, it will also strengthen the group’s strategic flexibility. The listing serves to diversify the shareholder base and create broader access to the capital market. The cross listing does not give rise to significant additional reporting requirements or costs.

Delta Lloyd Life, active in the Belgian market since 2001, is a prominent life insurer for personal and business customers and boasts a strong market position. Its innovative pension and life insurance solutions are mainly distributed through intermediaries, bank branches and tied agents. In 2008, Delta Lloyd Life doubled its turnover in Belgium through the acquisition of Swiss Life Belgium. The strategic focus of Delta Lloyd Life is on pensions and its expertise in this niche market.

Drawing on expertise rooted in the tradition of Bank Nagelmackers 1747, Delta Lloyd Bank has been active in Belgium since 2001 as a specialist in wealth accumulation and protection and asset management. Based on the customer’s expectations and financial position, clear arrangements are made for the short and long term and documented in a personal financial plan. The bank operates a network of more than 130 branches.
