

Delta Lloyd and unions have agreed on a new collective labour agreement in outline

Delta Lloyd and the FNV Bondgenoten, De Unie and Dienstenbond CNV unions have agreed on a new collective labour agreement and social plan in outline for the period from 1 January 2014 to 1 January 2017.

This three-year agreement will cover Delta Lloyd's workforce of over 4,000 employees in the Netherlands. Over the coming period the unions and the employer will work out the details of the outline agreement and social plan. Negotiations to conclude a good collective labour agreement have been ongoing since late September 2013.
